

Today's Not Yesterday

Shane Filan

I know all things have to end
But I don't feel ready
Can you still hear me
Can I do this all again
If I keep my head down
Would you still see me 'Cos I don't think it's over
Maybe I'm gonna find a way
No I don't think it's over
Everything that they might say
Forget it all
Today's not yesterday
Today's not yesterday
I know nothing's set in stone
I'll pick up the pieces and try to move on
If you're asking me to go
I'll always listen
You just got to let me know 'Cos I don't think it's over
Maybe I'm gonna find a way
No I don't think, it's over
Everything that they might say
Forget it all
Today's not yesterday
Today's not yesterday
I don't think it's over
Maybe I'm gonna find a way
No-one tells you it's over
Everything that they might say
Forget it all Today's not yesterday
Today's not yesterday
Today's not yesterday
