Tokyo Girl

M. Pokora

Knew it when I looked at you
And you looked the other way
Had to make you understand
I wanted you to staySo many here tonight but

I only see your face

You got me open now

Girl you give me something to chaseBaby set your mind free Standing right in front of me

Tell me what it's gonna beI can see you wanna dance

Why don't you just take my hand

Don't be scared to let it go

Don't be scared to let it go

Dont' be scared baby let it go

You can be my Tokyo Girl

When you move across the floor

Looking so incredible

Don't be scared baby let it go

You should be my Tokyo GirlIt's such a foreign feeling

In such a foreign place

Red lights are everywhere

And girl it's getting lateLet's go somewhere where we can

Do what lovers do

I know we've never met

But I'm going crazy for you

Baby set your mind free

Standing right in front of me

Tell me what it's gonna bel can see you wanna dance

So just take my hand, girl

RefrainOh

Thought I'm fighting my attraction

I can't help it

I need to know

If you really want it

If you're ready

Girl let's goOh

I can tell by your reaction

It's our time now

On the floor

If you really want it

If you're ready

Girl let's go!Refrain x2Don't be scared to let it go

Don't be scared to let it go
