

Mrs. Lennon (feat. Peter Bjorn and John)

Yoko Ono

Mrs. Lennon, oh Mrs. Lennon
Checking the sky to see if there's no clouds
There's no clouds
Oh then, I guess it must be alrightMrs. Lennon, oh Mrs. Lennon
Making the tea and watching the sea
There's no waves
Oh then, I guess it must be alrightSilver spoon, oh silver spoon
I lost my silver spoon
And our children, oh our children
Did they have to go to war?
Yes, my love, it's okay
Half the world is always killed you knowHusband John extended his hand
Extended his hand to his wife
And he finds, and suddenly he finds
That he has no handsThey've lost their bodies
They've lost their bodies
Yes, they lost their bodies
Neither of them, oh neither of them
Ever left each other
Yes, my love, it's okay
Half the world is always dying you know
