

Sorry

Maria Mena

Vague sound of rain pierces through my song again but I get distracted by the way his toes move when he plays so I let it burn I just poured my heart out there's bits of it on the floor
And I take what's left of it and rinse it under cold water And call him up for more And I say baby, yes I feel stupid to call you, but I'm lonely
And I don't think you meant it when you said you couldn't love me
And I thought maybe if I kissed the way you do, you'd feel it too
He said I'm sorry
so sorry
I'm sorry
so sorry He grabs my wrist as my fingers turn into angry fists and I whisper why can't you love me, I'll change for you I'll play the part And I say baby, so I feel stupid to call you, but I'm lonely
And I don't think you meant it when you said you couldn't love me
And I thought maybe if I kissed the way you do, you'd feel it too
He said I'm sorry
so sorry
I'm sorry
I am sorry x2
