Chaser

Jennifer Nettles

I wanna be the one Not the one after the one That breaks your heart I wanna be the fire Not the cool That soothes your tongue After the sparkDon't wanna be an after thought Don't wanna be the aftershock When you've had double shot Of herI wanna be the taste you crave Not just some call you make When you're dying of thirst And I know, I know, I know, I know That I don't, I don't, I don't, I don't Ever learn And if you go, you go, you go, you go But I wanna be the one That makes you burn And never burn out Wanna make you burn All the way down Are you feeling me now I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser Standing in line waiting on my turn I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser Wanna be the one that makes you burn I wanna be the name The only name that's on your lips When you're alone I wanna be the first Not the next one on the list In your phone Don't wanna be the old fallback The one you never did call back Even though I waited all night long Straight up or on the rocks Don't wanna take the edge off When the drink is too strong And I know, I know, I know, I know That I don't, I don't, I don't, I don't Ever learn And if you go, you go, you go, you go

But I wanna be the one That makes you burn And never burn out Wanna make you burn All the way down Are you feeling me, feeling me Burn and never burn out (I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser) (Chaser) Are you feeling me burn (I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser) (Chaser) All the way down (I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser) (Chaser) Are you feeling me now I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser Standing in line waiting on my turn I don't wanna be your chaser, chaser Wanna be the one that makes you burn Burn, burn, like an old scotch whiskey

Wanna be the one that makes you burn
Burn, burn, like an old scotch whiskey
Drink it down slow, pour it all night long
Burn like a heat everytime you kiss me
Like these words pouring off my tongue
