Kayleigh (1998 Digital Remaster)

Marillion

Do you remember chalk hearts melting on a playground wall Do you remember dawn escapes from moonwashed college halls Do you remember the cherry blossom in the market square Do you remember I thought it was confetti in our hair By the way didn't I break your heart Please excuse me I never meant to break your heart So sorry I never meant to break your heart But you broke mineKayleigh is it too late to say I'm sorry? And Kayleigh could we get it together again I just can't go on pretending that it came to a natural end Kayleigh oh I never thought I'd miss you And Kayleigh I thought that we'd always be friends We said our love would last forever So how did it come to this bitter end Do you remember barefoot on the lawn with shooting stars Do you remember the loving on the floor in Belsize Park Do you remember dancing in stilettoes in the snow Do you remember you never understood I had to go By the way didn't I break your heart Please excuse me I never meant to break your heart So sorry I never meant to break your heart But you broke mine Kayleigh, I just want to say I'm sorry But Kayleigh I'm too scared to pick up the phone To hear you've found another lover to patch up our broken home Kayleigh I'm still trying to write that love song Kayleigh it's more important to me, now you're gone Maybe it will prove that we were right Or it'll prove that I was wrong Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
