

Hallelujah

Alicia Keys

There's a hole in my heart
I've been hiding
I've been strong for so long
That I'm blind
Is there a place
I can go where the lonely river flows?
Where fear ends and faith begins Hallelujah, hallelujah, let me in
I've been praying
But I'm paying for my sins
Won't you give me a sign
If I lose my mind?
Woah, hallelujah, let me in
Every step makes me think
That I'm closer
But somehow
I just haven't arrived
When our hope disappears,
Please protect me from my fears
I need you right by my side Hallelujah, hallelujah, let me in
I've been praying
But I'm paying for my sins
Won't you give me a sign
If I lose my mind?
Woah, hallelujah, let me in
Woah, woah, hallelujah
Woah, woah, hallelujah
All the places I've been
Please forgive me for my sins
Woah, hallelujah, let me in
Woah, woah, let me in
Woah, woah, let me in
Woah, woah
Please forgive me for my sins
