

Never Gonna Die

Zara Larsson

Do you recognize the sound anymore?
Do you recognize the sound of my voice?
Does it get drowned in the noise?
I wonder if you found what you want
Maybe I'm telling myself a lie when I say
I'm the only one still on your mind
You will be mine someday
I feel you when I'm in the dark
I still don't know how to move on
I'm sick and in love, but I feel in my gut
Yeah, I know that you're the one
Used to say "forever" but it's "never" now
Thought we'd be together but we're separate now
You are my first, and that's why it hurts
That fire, it burns, it ain't ever gonna die
Now, it ain't ever gonna die
Now, it ain't ever gonna...Is it even worth the time anymore?
It's different this time, ain't it, boy?
'Cause that's always what you'd say, what you'd say
But I'm better at the games that you play
I'm taking back who's mine 'cause you said it's forever
Standin' a test of time if we dare stay together
I ain't gonna wait in line, I'm patient but I'm not blind
We're young so we got that time, make it right, alright
Used to say "forever" but it's "never" now
Thought we'd be together but we're separate now
You are my first, and that's why it hurts
That fire, it burns, it ain't ever gonna die
Never thought I'd ever say, "We're strangers now,"
All the love we had has turned to hate somehow
You are my first, and that's why it hurts
That fire, it burns, it ain't ever gonna die
Now, it ain't ever gonna die
Now, it ain't ever gonna die
Never gonna die
Never gonna die, no
Here we are at this place again
Somewhere between "eternal love" and "no longer"
And if I never see your face again
I hope you know that there will never be another like you Used to say "forever" but it's "never"
now
Thought we'd be together but we're separate now
You are my first and that's why it hurts
That fire, it burns, it ain't ever gonna die
Never thought I'd ever say, "We're strangers now,"
All the love we had has turned to hate somehow
You are my first, and that's why it hurts

That fire, it burns, it ain't ever gonna die
Now, it ain't ever gonna die
It ain't ever gonna die
You were my first and that's why it hurts
That fire, it burns, it ain't ever gonna die
