

Tequila Talkin'

Lonestar

I called about that conversation that I had with you last night
It must have been a combination of shooters and neon lights
And I didn't really mean to say, I've been losing it since you left Yeah, I may have said the words but they came from somewhere else
It was just the tequila talkin' when I told you I'm still not over you
I get a little sentimental when I've had one or two
And that tear in my eye was the salt and the lime
Not the memory of you walkin'
If I said I'm still in love with you, it was just the tequila talkin'
I don't know what they put in cuervo that got me to say those things
Usually I wouldn't care so much or make such a scene
But seeing you there in that dress you were wearing
Just drove me right out of my head
So don't hold me responsible for anything I might've said
It was just the tequila talkin' when I told you I'm still not over you
I get a little sentimental when I've had one or two
And that tear in my eye was the salt and the lime
Not the memory of you walkin'
If I said I'm still in love with you, it was just the tequila talkin'
If I said I'm still in love with you, it was just the tequila talkin'
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://counterlikes.com/>