

When She Comes

EMA

We can leave it on the nightstand
When she comes
She'll be searching for her knives back
When she comes
She'll be raring for a fight
When she comes
But we're all alone tonite
When she comes
When she comes
She's my favorite animal
But she gets violent what the fuck
They'll be psilocybin nightmares
When they come
We will terraform the night, yeah
When we come
They'll be begging for their lives
When they come
But there's nothing more to write back
When they come
So gaze in Dorothy's mirror pond
'Til you come and make me fawn
And we'll blame it on the white man
When he comes
We will telephone his wife, yeah
When she comes
'Cuz he does it for the spite
When he comes
And we wanna do what's right
When we come
When we come
Not too long we're in this world
So what'd you even come here for?
