

Brite Side

Debbie Harry

Whenever i collapse whenever i fold in your arms that's when i know i'm holding you holding you within my grasp whenever i feel trapped held by the inescapable i try to put my mind at ease protect the heart worn on my sleeve that's when i feel brand new i'm looking on the brite side i've got my visuals
my 20-20's true
i'm looking on the brite side
that's when i know it's you whenever i'm in red a guardian angel's flying round my head i feel your touch warm as red's embarrassment innocence blush
i've got my visuals
my 20-20's true
i'm looking on the brite side
that's when i know it's you whenever i'm in bed i see myself in wide-screen love scene close-up i'm holding you, holding you we're wrapped in blue
i'm looking on the brite side
i'm looking on the brite side
