

Happier

Guster

Say goodbye.
Lose your friends.
Make them go.
Don't need them around.
Cause it's time.
Lose your friends
Make them go.
Was never supposed to be like this.
They were too weak.
Too prone to break.
Their needs too deep.
Their skin too thin.
By now you took what was to take.
Tear it apart and start again.
So go on,
If this will make you happier.
It got you this far.
Did what you had to. You've wasted every moment
Of your Saturdays
And your Sundays.
You're wasted from the boredom.
Was never supposed to be
Like your father said,
"Just do what was done unto you, always."
In your father's steps,
You'll do what was done unto you.
It won't be hard to start again. So go on,
If this will make you happier.
It got you this far.
Do what you have to.
And you're gone now.
(Well you knew this would come)
And did it make you happier?
(And you're lost and you're gone)
(Don't take it so seriously)
It wasn't that hard.
(Go on, get going)
(I'm fine on my own)
Did what you had to.
(And we got me this far)
(Finally got it figured out) One more inch,

You son of a bitch.
You've been wasting my time, always.
And now you're half awake.
You bend 'til you break.
And make the same mistakes, always. So go on,
If this will make you happier.
It got you this far.
Do what you have to. And you're gone now.
(Well you knew this would come)
And did it make you happier?
(And you're lost and you're gone)
(Don't take it so seriously)
It wasn't that hard.
(Go on, get going)
(I'm fine on my own)
Did what you had to.
(And we got me this far)
(Finally got it figured out)
