You wanna spray at me? Go head

The last nigga that tried

Got hit, keeled over, and bled 'til he died

Ya little sister callin you stupid

Reason why?

I came up wit two new ways to get rich I cant wait

Got a brand new cig and that old thirty eight

I be scheming to put a lil' bread on my plate

Watchin Dre serve skunk through the hole in the gate

I stick a nigga for his shine sell em' back the next day

You thought I really wanted your pussy, bitch please

This is stash house, jack pot, leave her them keys

My black g-unit hoody just reaked of marijuana

Cocaine coming out my pores in the summer

Im serious man I'm so sincere

This the flow right here that fked up Jeffery's career

Make money, take money
