

I Wouldn't Need You

Norah Jones

If I touched myself
The way you touched me
If I could hold myself
The way you held me Then I wouldn't need you
No, I wouldn't need you
No, I wouldn't need you
To love myself I could replace
The things you gave me
If I could see my face
Without the tragedy
Then I wouldn't need you
No, I wouldn't need you
No, I wouldn't need you
To love me But I do
So, come back
Come back If you could see the way I act
When I'm alone
If you could hear my voice crack
Over the phone
Then you'd know I need you
Oh, you'd know I need you
Oh, you'd know I need you
To love me
