

Worth It

Dreezy

Look what did to me
You got me going out my mind
Never had real love before
I still just cant believe my mind
Cuz everyone I've met
Was once my obsession
Ended up as a regret
Only right I confess
Inside I'm a mess
I just want somebody i can give my best
Dont turn your back like the rest
I'm not perfect
I have flaws
But I'm so worth it
Had my heart broke once now I build walls
Not on purpose
I dont have it all
But I'm so worth it
I'm so worth it
Insecure or is it intuition
Never knew someone like you existed
You might be the pieces that Im missing
Hesitant but still I cant resist it
No I aint the richest but I pay attention
You could be my partner like we on a mission
Dimond worth a jigga
Down to pull the trigga
Bet I love you more than all them other bitches
Use to run the liquor
Judging in the mirror
Wish my hair was longer, wish that I was thicker
Gotta have a frame, so you love the figure
When I finish hope you see the bigger picture
Ima be the realest with ya
I can be myself when im with ya
Got my guards up but you beat the system
Made it to my heart, you got the key to steal it
Im not perfect, I have flaws
But im so worth it
Had my heart broke once, now i build walls
Not on purpose
I dont have it all

But Im so worth it

Im so worth it
