

Hello

Galantis

There's a voice in my head telling me to stay
If I take one more step, I'll never be the same
I keep running, running, running, running from your loving
I keep running, running from you Hello, can you hear me now?
This is your heart begging
You turn, turn back around
Hello, can you hear me now?
This is your heart begging
You turn, turn back around
Oh Hello, can you hear me now?
Hello, hello Now the door's wide open, but I'm still outside
All the words unspoken written in my mind
I keep running, running, running, running from your loving
I keep running, running from you Hello, can you hear me now?
This is your heart begging
You turn, turn back around
Hello, can you hear me now?
This is your heart begging
You turn, turn back around
Hello (hello)
Hello (hello)
Hello (hello, hello, hello, hello) Oh Hello, can you hear me now?
Hello, hello (hello)
