

Why Would I Stop?

Big Sean

Critical ain't no time left on the clock
When it's yo time give them something to watch
I picked out the locks till I buy out the block
And I know I'm a gift but I think out the box
And they want me to stop but why would I stop
I am unstoppable (Hol' up) why would I stop, bitch?
Why would I stop? Chill (Chill), I don't jump, I dive in it (Hol' up, hol' up, hol' up) this the reason I'm alive isn't it? This shit the antidote, this the cure cancer flow
Stop a pandemic and the globe
The product of old Ye chopping up the sample flow
Dilla and Pimp C, the trilla, this might go too trill for Triller though
I see you critical, I'm not hospitable, favorite rappers I done cut they umbilicals
Red Wings jersey B.I.G look like Pac
The blacker the the berry the more they wanna see it rot
I'm going down as one of the GODS, G-O-D-D-O-A, dead or alive
I'm laying low, they could be espionage
This ain't no walk in the park you can't slide
Solution to every else 'round me problems
Next episode, got the whole fucking world watching
Might leave the series, come back like I'm Rodman
Get it no or right now my only two options So why would I stop, I am unstoppable (Hol' up)
Why would I stop, bitch? This shit unstoppable
Chill (Chill), I don't jump, I dive in it (Hol' up, hol' up, hol' up) this the reason I'm alive isn't it?
The DJ gone drop this, we made it from scratch
I'm minding my business and all of its black
My dog on the same wave the mode is attack
I don't complain about life, I adapt
I'm at a point if I fuck with a lil' hoe
It's not a fling it's a scandal (On God)
I can't be handing out samples (No way)
I can't be having 10 baby mommas
That shit sound like a job not a family
And I do this shit for the family (Straight up)
Yeah, that's just the roots I had planted (God)
D2 this shit the new standard
Upgraded the city, it got a new feeling, the house that I built (Whoa)
House in the hills, ain't no hills in the D, so we all in the field (Whoa, whoa)
Runnin' shit 5K, 3K Andre (Run it, run it)
Hair on my hood when they dress like me that's cosplay
Give a fuck 'bout a threat, nigga, I'ma threat leaving out the driveway

I never listen to what the opps say
Why when the universe respond to what I say?
