

Blood

Breaking Benjamin

Every endless word
I have nothing here
Sick of all that was
Tired of all that is Every hated love
I am broken in
Sick of fucking up
Tired of falling in And all that I regret
I have before and will again
It's over now
(Are you running away?)
I come apart
(As I lay awake!)
It's in my blood
(Let the sky fall down!)
I won't let go
(My oblivion!) Counting every breath
I am my own fear
Nothing ever was
Nothing ever is Every halo lost
I am worn within
Nothing left to harm
Nothing left to live
And all that I regret
I have before and will again It's over now
(Are you running away?)
I come apart
(As I lay awake!)
It's in my blood
(Let the sky fall down!)
I won't let go
(My oblivion!) Face the monster I've become
(And fight! I will not become!)
In the ground we rise to burn
(Maybe your life will let me love!)
Forgive my heart It's over now
I come apart It's in my blood
(Let the sky fall down!)
I won't let go
(My oblivion!)
