

You Will Know My Name

Arch Enemy

Their judging eyes watching me
Is all I've ever known
When I try to open up my heart
I am ridiculed and torn apart Your damn jokes I'll never get to hear
Behind my back at my expense
There's something inside me
And I know it's good
I'm not evil, just misunderstood Do you see me now?
Do you hear me now?
You will know my name
Do you see me now?
Do you fear me now?
You will know my name
Today I break my silence
Strip you of your dignity
Tear down your perfect world
Your perfect lies No more jokes I'll never get to hear
Behind my back at my expense
There's something inside me
And I know it's good
I'm not evil, just misunderstood Do you see me now?
Do you hear me now?
You will know my name
Do you see me now?
Do you fear me now?
You will know my name
No longer invisible
You will know my name
Do you see me now?
Do you hear me now?
You will know my name
Do you see me now?
Do you fear me now?
You will know my name
No longer invisible
You will know my name!
