I owe you I miss you

I need you I love you

Yeongwontorok geudae pume

English Translation:

The door has opened to a new world

You are in there

One step over, the dazzling world

It's greeting me

I want to go to you, into your arms

I want to stay in a world that is you

I owe you I miss you

I need you I love you

Forever in your arms

Each day is new

It makes my heart flutter

You, who I drew out in my dreams, are here

So even my fearful trembles make me smile

I want to go to you, into your arms

I want to stay in a world that is you

I owe you I miss you

I need you I love you

Forever in your arms

I still don't know many things

Show me your world, your heart

Come to me and hold my hand

I will love you, even if this world changes

I owe you I miss you

I need you I love you

Forever in your arms
