

Headlines (Friendship Never Ends)

Spice Girls

(Verse 1 - Emma)

The time is now or never
To fit the missing piece
To take this on together
You make me feel complete
We fall into the future
And through the looking glass
The light shines over our heads
And so it comes to pass

(Bridge 1 - Geri)

To go beyond the surface
To reach into your soul
This love is not demanding
My heart has told me so

I hold onto my hero (aaaaaaah ahhhhhhh aaaahhhh)
With faith enough to fly
The power to imagine

Will keep this love alive Let's make the headlines loud and true

I wanna tell the world I'm givin' it all to you

Let's make the headlines loud and clear

The best things suddenly happen when you are near

If I lost my way you'd carry me home

Take me all the way to heaven

Never leave me alone (everything)

And it's just like everything matters when you are near (matters when you're near)

(Verse 2 - Mel C)

And it feels so good

Every bell's gonna ring

Your love is alive and it's makin' me sing

I could fly, wanna cry

Want the whole world to know

We are together

C'mon baby, lets go (Bridge 2 - Victoria)

And words yet to be spoken

Will fall upon the page

Spellin' out true devotion

Is all we need to say Let's make the headlines loud and true (say you love me and I'll say I love you too)

I wanna tell the world I'm giving it all to you (just remember what simple words can do)

Let's make the headlines loud and clear (all that I have I give to you my friend)

The best things suddenly happen when you are near (just remember that friendship never ends)

If I lost my way you'd carry me home

Take me all the way to heaven
Never leave me alone (everything)
And it's just like everything matters when you are near (matters when you're near)
Say you love me and I'll say I love you too Let's make the headlines true this time (just remember what simple words can do)
There's no hiding from this magical state of mind (I feel love (with you, I feel) I feel love)
If I lost my way you'd carry me home (I. Know. You'd. Take. Me. All the way to heaven)
Take me all the way to heaven never leave me alone
And it's just like everything matters when you are near (Ev'ry. Thing. Matters, it really matters)
Let's make the headlines loud and true (I feel love, I feel, I feel love)
Let's make the headlines..."" (Bridge 3 - Mel B)
'Cos I'm giving it all
Yeah I'm giving it all to you."
