

Delete You

Ashley Tisdale

It's not time to give this one more try, I don't think so
Last night you said you want a last lie
I can't let you wreck my plans
I'm planning to let you go Oh, Only one thing is true, only one thing to do Time to, delete you
Burning up all your pictures Tearing up all your letters
Ripping up all your sweaters
This is, this is
For the better
Slashing up all your tires Smashing up all your flowers
Grabbing back all my power
'Cause one mess says I don't need you
Delete you
Oh, oh delete you
Whoa oh oh It's not time to say how much you care, I don't think so
I don't want you, I want you not there I'm done I think that the time's come
To bring this thing to an end
I think this could be goodbye, I think you've run out of time Time to, delete you
Burning up all your pictures
Tearing up all your letters
Ripping up all your sweaters
This is, this is
For the better
Slashing up all your tires
Smashing up all your flowers
Grabbing back all my power
'Cause one mess says I don't need you
Delete you
All I want from you is for you to disappear
All I need from you is for you to not be here
I guess it's time you got the news
Gonna replace you, erase you
Delete you, Delete you
Oh, oh delete you
Whoa oh oh, oh delete you
Burning up all your pictures
Tearing up all your letters
Ripping up all your sweaters
This is, this is
For the better
Slashing up all your tires
Smashing up all your flowers
Grabbing back all my power

'Cause one mess says I don't need you

Delete you

Oh, oh delete you

Whoa oh oh, oh delete you

Time to delete you

Whoa oh, delete you
