

Spoil You (feat. T.I.)

Boosie Badazz

Boosie Badazz, TIP, every woman wanna be spoiled I know you got wants, I know you got needs

I know you got plans, and I know you got dreams

Know you got a man that you probably wanna leave

But tell me girl, do you know what rubber bands means?

Girl let me spoil you, let me spoil you

Girl let me spoil you, let me spoil you

Girl let me spoil you, let me spoil you

Girl let me spoil you, let me spoil you

New Celine purses, girl I know you're worth it

I'm the one you looking for, there's no need for you searching

For dudes who are worthless, you got a special person

But he ain't doing what he 'posed to do, spoil you

Just point to where you wanna go, tell me what you wanna do

Wanna get in school, I got hookups, all that LSU

Tell the truth, you tired of hitting them all, window shopping

Deep inside you really want somebody really got it

I really got it and I'm really tryna call you

Take you shopping, girl I'm really tryna spoil you

You too bad to not have bags and heels

I got a spoiling invitation, let me know what it is
