Airport Song

Guster

Glad you made it, welcome to the farm Who's your daddy, I'm your daddy now I'm here seeking only what I need In your mind is where I'll plant my seed It's for sure.Let me keep you in this place you'll be better off this way I will keep you warm and safe, you'll be better off this way You learn to love the price you pay Trust me dear you're better off this way Put to bed the sun and sister moon I'll be hiding in your dirty room I'll go there seeking only what I need La de da we'll stay there 'til we bleed It's for sure Let me keep you in this place, you'll be better off this way I will keep you warm and safe, you'll be better off this way I will not wake you from your sleep, Leave you wandering counting sheep No more sad and sunshine days Trust me dear, you're better off this wayYou'll be selling books at the airport.
