Love Is Our Weapon

Never Shout Never

Hey everybody take a look around Put your money where your mouth is Take your eyes off the ground We got a hard day coming if we can't work out All the pissy little problems that were fightin' aboutaye!See, I never got involved with politics 'cause they always brought out the worst in my folks But I always swore to them if I could make a change at all I'd love this world before it implodes We all want change And we want it now Hey everybody take a look around Put your money where your mouth is Take your eyes off the ground We got a hard day coming if we can't work out All the pissy little problems that were fightin' aboutave!Love is the weapon for this lukewarm congregation Love is the only thing that's kept me believing Love is the weapon for this wounded generation Love is the only thing that's kept me believingThat the world will change (world will change) We all want change (want it now) Hey everybody take a look around Put your money where your mouth is Take your eyes off the ground We got a hard day coming if we can't work out All the pissy little problems that were fightin' aboutave!
