Paul Alone & Lazaro

When I met you, you didn't want to meet me
When I kissed you, you didn't want to kiss me
When I left you, you didn't want to leave me
And now you just put me apart
When I moved you told me you were gonna be there
When I needed you you didn't need me
When I missed you, you laughed
And now you just put me apart
When I hold you, you stand up
When I love you, you wind it up
Oh when I hold you
Oh when I love you
You make me feel so bad
When I hold you, you stand up
When I love you, you wind it up
Oh when I hold you
Oh when I love you
You make me feel so bad
When I cried you laughed
When I died, you were celebrating life
When I ran, you didn't wanna to run
And now you just put me apart
When I hold you, you stand up
When I love you, you wind it up
Oh when I hold you
Oh when I love you
You make me feel so bad
When I hold you, you stand up
When I love you, you wind it up
Oh when I hold you
Oh when I love you
You make me feel so bad
