

We Are Royals (feat. Chris Cauley)

North Point InsideOut

From urban streets, to open plains
We are under, one Name
No one is lost, or goes unseen
'Cause we're all loved, by our King This is nothing ordinary
There is power in the Name we carry
Every nation, every tongue
Welcome to the Kingdom All the rich
All the poor
All the people
All Yours
We are daughters
We are sons
More than mortals
We are royals
We are Yours
We are Yours, yay
Yours
We are Yours
Our hearts unbound, we're running free
Different stories, one dream
, that we belong
We've found our home, in the Father's love This is nothing ordinary
There is power in the Name we carry
Every nation, every tongue
Welcome to the Kingdom All the rich
All the poor
All the people
All Yours
We are daughters
We are sons
More than mortals
We are royals
We are Yours
We are Yours, yay
Yours
We are Yours
It don't matter, don't matter where we come from Everyone is welcome in Your Kingdom
It don't matter if we're broke or we're broken
In Your love we have found our freedom All the rich
All the poor
All the people

All Yours
We are daughters
We are sons
More than mortals
We are royals
We are Yours
We are Yours, yay
We are Yours
We are Yours...
