

Boomerang (feat. TYSM)

Felix Snow & Teflon Sega

Ain't looking at one or the other (yeah, yeah)
Always tripping when you cheer with another (okay)
Like a boomerang, I'm back every summer
In your neighborhood, still got your number now
I ain't never been so caught on a feeling
I surrender when my head's in the ceiling
No running when no one can help me
You make it hard and I know that you planned it
Can somebody, somebody, somebody tell me
why now
The more I hold it in, the more and more it multiplies, it multiples now?
Can anybody, anybody, anybody see me trying?
When I say goodbye, what I really mean to say is that I'm dying
Where do I put this feel, feel, feel, feel, feeling?
Where do I put this feel, feel, feel, feel, feeling?
I've been feeling some type of way
And it really, really ain't gonna change
I need it let it go, it's impossible
Where do I put this feeling?
Where do I put this feeling?
Always calling when you making me chase it
You keep biting, I'm the hook that you baited
Like a boomerang, you're back every summer
You acting super but I'm playing it dumber
Can somebody, somebody, somebody tell me why
now
The more I hold it in, the more and more it multiplies, it multiples now?
Can anybody, anybody, anybody see me trying?
When I say goodbye, what I really mean to say is that I'm dying
Where do I put this feel, feel, feel, feel, feeling?
Where do I put this feel, feel, feel, feel, feeling?
I've been feeling some type of way
And it really, really ain't gonna change
I need it let it go, it's impossible
Where do I put this feeling?
Where do I put this feeling?
