

Lay It All On Me (feat. Ed Sheeran)

Rudimental

oh oh oh oh oh ohhh all alone as you look through the door nothing left to see if it hurts and you cant take no more lay it all on me no you dont have to keep it under lock and key cause i would never let you down and if you cant escape from these certainties baby let me show you how let my love in let my love in lay your heart on me if youre hurtin if youre hurtin lay it all on me lay it all on me
