Thomas Rhett

You say it everyday now
I know I get spaced out in our conversation
Yeah it's been a hard year, you say that I don't hear all the words you're saying
And it makes you miss me, even when you're with me, feels like something's broken
I know I've been actin' easily distracted, you wish I could focus
You think that I don't notice how you
brush your hair out of your green eyes
The way you blush when you drink red wine
The way you smile when you try to bend the truth
You think that I don't notice all the songs you sing underneath your breath
You still tear up at a beach sunset
And you dance just like you're the only one in the room
You think that I don't notice, but I do
I do, yeah, I do, yeah
At that party last night, baby, I don't know why I forgot to mention
You were looking drop dead
Not even a contest, center of attention
If I had to say every time you looked amazing,
You'd think I was joking
But I brag about you when I'm not around you
You don't even know it
You think that I don't notice how you
brush your hair out of your green eyes
The way you blush when you drink red wine
The way you smile when you try to bend the truth
You think that I don't notice all the
songs you sing underneath your breath
You still tear up at a beach sunset
And you dance just like you're the only one in the room
You think that I don't notice, but I see it all
And I keep on falling for you every night
Over and over again
It's my fault that I don't remind you every day of your life
You're perfect
I do, yeah, I do, yeah
You think that I don't notice how you
brush your hair out of your green eyes
The way you blush when you drink red wine
The way you smile when you try to bend the truth
You think that I don't notice all the
songs you sing underneath your breath

You still tear up at a beach sunset
And you dance just like you're the only one in the room
You think that I don't notice, but I do
I do, yeah, I do, yeah
