

Babygirl

Musiq

So fine baby, smelled so nice when you walked on by, yeah Pardon me my darling but do you have a second

Just so I can tell you how you caught my full attention

Now how is it that you look so well put together?

Flawless as can be, it just doesn't get no better Hey babygirl why don't you come home with me

And let me show you what some good loving means

'Cause I got so much love inside

And I wanna give it all to you babygirl, to you babygirl

Oh yeah, your body's picture perfect and there ain't a brick that's missing

You look like your mama raised you on them grits and chicken

Now I know that you heard this like probably all the time

But if you come with me, I'm gon' make it worth your while Hey babygirl why don't you come home with me

And let me show you what some good loving means

'Cause I got so much love inside

And I wanna give it all to you babygirl, to you babygirl Babygirl, babygirl, babygirl, babygirl

(Don't you walk away from me, no baby)

Babygirl, babygirl, babygirl, babygirl

(Hey girl) Hey babygirl why don't you come home with me

And let me show you what some good loving means

'Cause I got so much love inside

And I wanna give it all to you babygirl, to you babygirl

Hey babygirl why don't you come home with me

And let me show you what some good loving means

'Cause I got so much love inside

And I wanna give it all to you babygirl, to you babygirl Babygirl, oh no no babygirl

[Incomprehensible]
