

Magnet

Punch Brothers

I pinned her to the wall and said i wanna take you home i wanna take you home, think about it She threw to the floor and said
i wanna take you home, think about it is there a center between two centers of attention?
and then there's-cause im a magnet you're a magnet and we're pushing each other away Baby im a blank cheque you're a blank cheque to whose order are we going to pay?
Our very own order to pay i laughed away to tears and said if you took me now well if you took me here think about it She locked the hallway door and said you're going to take me now you're going to take me here don't think about it but ive thought about it
