

Beach Baby

Bon Iver

When you're out,
Tell your lucky one
to know that you'll leave.
But you don't look when you're fleeing
I'd like not hear keys Only hold, till your coffee warms,
But don't hurry and speed. One a time put a tongue
In your ear on the beach
And you clutched clicking heels
