

Clouds (2006 Version)

Chaka Khan

Clouds
Different shapes and sizes
Hiding the horizonClouds
In the distance
Coming to change my plans
All my dreams will melt like sandClouds
The moment that you say good-bye
They're gonna rush right to the skyWhoa...
Baby, baby, please don't go
It's gonna rain
It's gonna rain
It's gonna rain down tears
Of heartaches and fearsIt's gonna rain
It's gonna rain
I know for sure
'Cause you don't reach for me no moreIt's gonna rain
It's gonna rain
There in the distance
Is that number one painClouds
Thunder is the warning
So dark and so alarmingClouds
Go away, go away
Go, don't take away my sunny days
Clouds
Leave me be
Getting so dark out
I just can't see
