

Impossible

Kelly Clarkson

Spoke up and thought I'd try
Try to step across the line
You know that I've been thinkin' 'bout it for a while
Yeah starting to think it's time I knee
Does me good to know I finally feel
Feel this pain, it's real
It's possible
You say Can't change the winds, you say
Won't matter anyway
Can't reach that far 'cause it's impossible
It's impossible
Can't rise above this place
Won't change your mind so I pray
Breakin' down the walls
Do the impossible
Walkin' by myself I know
This lonely road's becomin' my new home
But I don't stop, I just keep movin' on
And on
Ain't no need to dry my eyes
I haven't cried in quite some time
Every day I fight it
You know it's possible
You say Can't change the winds, you say
Won't matter anyway
Can't reach that far 'cause it's impossible
It's impossible
Won't change your mind so I pray
Breakin' down the walls
Do the impossible
Can someone tell me why it's so hard takin' chances
You draw the line and think that I won't ask for more, yeah
I will stumble and I'll make my own mistakes yeah
But I won't worry 'bout it anymore
It's impossible Can't change the winds, you say
Won't matter anyway
Can't reach that far 'cause it's impossible
It's impossible
Won't change your mind so I pray
Breakin' down the walls

Do the impossibleIt's impossible to you
Not impossible for me
Not impossible for meSpoke up and though it'd try
Try to step across the line
