

The Last Song I'm Wasting on You

Evanescence

Sparkling gray
They're my own veins
Any more than a whisper
Any sudden movement of my heart
And I know
I know I'll have to watch them pass away
Just get through this day Give up your way
You could be anything
Give up my way
And lose myself
Not today
There's too much guilt to pay
Sickened in the sun
You dare tell me you love me
But you held me down and screamed you wanted me to die
Honey you know
You know I'd never hurt you that way
You're just so pretty in your pain Give up my way
And I could be anything
I'll make my own way
Without your senseless
Hate... hate... hate... hate So run... run... run
And hate me
If it feels good
I can't hear your screams anymore You lied to me
But I'm older now
And I'm not buying baby
Demanding my response
Don't bother breaking the door down
I found my way out
And you'll never hurt me again
