

Laura

Flogging Molly

Feel the words from my lips to your heart's fingertip
Then you know where I come from
Cause I know, yes, I know everything there is to know
Cause I've lost everything I had
See, I
I could have danced on the sun
But my world came undone
Laura
There's no need for tears
Cause there's no need to cry
The love that you leave
Will never be denied
This pain in my head
Escaped from my heart
No woman alive
Could touch who you were
So bye bye, Laura
There's no one could take your place
Bye bye, Laura
Your beauty will never fade
They say that your song
Will reach for the sky
This love that you leave
Will never be denied
And after the song
The spirit lives on
Though you're not around
You'll never be gone
So bye bye, Laura
There's no one could take your place
Bye bye, Laura
But I
I could have danced on the sun
But my world came undone
Laura
Yeah, I
I could have danced on the sun
But my world came undone
So bye bye, Laura
Bye bye, Laura
So bye bye, Laura
Bye bye, Laura
This pain in my head
Escaped from my heart
Could touch who you were
So bye bye, Laura
Bye bye, Laura
So bye bye, Laura
Bye bye, Laura
