

Remember to Forget

Otep

Hush now, close your eyes open your mouth, swallow liesHush now, close your eyes open your mouth, swallow, swallow liesMoth breath fluttering He whispered to me
the violence of silenceWe have a terrible secret that we must never repeat & if i do, he'll dedicate his life to ripping me to shredsRemember to forget.Poison crown of regret Sucking life like funeral flies Shadow of Oedipus
Eat the fever; knife the eyes Remember
to forget
to relent
to surrenderRemember
to forget
to relent
to surrenderI hope you die like swine surrounded by starving dogs I'm stained by your sin like the blood soaked boards of the crossBetween the Devil & the deep sea, you'll find me dreaming evil endlessly, aroused by life's fantasies
What do you do when dreams come true and it's all so ordinary?
Stitch the wounds of complacency and hide your eyes from reality?I am the shape of a God lifting up the sky.Remember
to forget
to relent
to surrenderRemember
to forget
to relent
to surrenderinsurrection INSURRECTIONI kicked you out of bed stabbed knives into the walls poured gas over your head struck a match in the hallThis will remind you This will remind you
This will remind you the burden we carry

This will remind you
This will remind you
This will remind you the razors are ready Room after room I hunt the darkened world for you Casket black, dried & cracked, ashes among the dunes
But I've gone blind in time to lose you to the dark Now I'm immune to you and your whorish heart Hus now close your eyes Open your mouth, swallow lies Hush now you're all mine Close your eyes, close your eyes Remember to forget
to relent
to forget
to relent
to surrender
