

Broken Heart

Shocking Blue

There will be a day
That you go away
And I have to stay
With the broken heart,
With the broken heart. I nearly told it up to you,
You decide what you're gonna do.
I see in your eyes
That we are through. There will be a day
That you go away
And I have to stay
With the broken heart,
With the broken heart.
Now I hear this old song,
I can't go on.
Why are you so hard?
I want your lovin'.
Don't let me stay
With the broken heart,
With the broken heart,
With the broken heart,
With the broken heart.
