Kiss the Rain

Yiruma

I often close my eyes and I can see you smile you reach out for my hand and I'm woken from my dream although your heart is mine it's hollow inside i never had your love and I never willand every night i lay awake thinking maybe you love me like I've always loved you but how can you love me like I loved you when you can't even look me straight in my eyes I've never felt this way to be so in love to have someone there yet feel so alone aren't you supposed to be the one to wipe my tears the one to say that you would never leavethe waters calm and still my reflection is there i see you holding me but then you disappear all that is left of you is a memory one that only exist in my dreams and every night i lay awake thinking maybe you love me like I've always loved you but how can you love me like I loved you when you can't even look me straight in my eyesI don't know what hurts you but i can feel it too and it just hurts so much to know that i can't do a thing and deep down in my heart somehow i just know that no matter what I'll always love youI often close my eyes and I can see you smile

you reach out for my hand and I'm woken from my dream although your heart is mine it's hollow inside i never had your love and I never willso why am i still here in the rain?
