

Chasing a Bee (Inside a Car)

Mercury Rev

Those seducers, those seducers
Those seducers, those seducers Bombed out lovers
Gallant red flocks of mellow seducers
Find eager seekers
Deep deef down
Beautiful lines from above and we're all a-glow
Raise her head and things get warm
Hold on to it's leg before it flies away
Sunlit walks
I feel no harm
My primitive words match my primitive heart
It's not as easy as it may seem
Remember that yourself is steam
And of course it don't mind
Chasing a bee inside a jar
And of course it don't mind
Chasing a bee inside a jar Then like sheep led to sacrificial slaughter
They don't mind
But they oughta (they oughta)
All the time (they oughta)
Their pretty shells
Are so inviting
Well protected
Their eyes are rivers
They give me shivers And of course it don't mind
Chasing a bee inside a jar
And of course it don't mind
Chasing a bee inside a jar
In a jar, in a jar, in a jar
It's not time for the real life sign
It's not time for these fears of mine
It's not time for the real life sign
It's not time for these fears of mine I'm feeling troubled, I'm feeling trapped
Can't shake that bubble off my back It's not as easy as it may seem
Remember that yourself is steam
It's not as easy as it may seem
Remember that yourself is steam It's not time for the real life sign
It's not time for these fears of mine
I'm feeling troubled, I'm feeling trapped
Can't shake that bubble off my back
I feel no harm, I feel no harm
(feel no harm) And of course it don't mind

Chasing a bee inside a jar
And of course it don't mind
Chasing a bee inside a jar
In a jar, in a jar, in a jarIt's not as easy as it may seem
Remember that yourself is steamWell, once it's lost, it'll never be found
Keeps spinning in circles 'til you break the ground
