

I've Tried Everything

Eurythmics

The truth of life is the greatest gift
But I don't think I can make it fit
And who would guess it would come to this
When I've tried everything And I should know but I can't explain
The endless noise sounding in my brain
Who would've thought that you could feel such pain
When you've tried everything Yea. you're a loser now
Yea. you're a loser now I should be cool
But I'm burning hot
I should be good
But I fell apart
Don't look at me now don't even start
Cause I've tried everything
Yea. You're a loser now
Yea. You're a loser now
