

Five Years (2012 Remastered Version)

David Bowie

Pushing through the market square
So many mothers sighing News had just come over We had five years left to cry in News guy wept and told us Earth was really dying
Cried so much his face was wet
Then I knew he was not lying I heard telephones opera house
favorite melodies
I saw boys toys
electric irons and TV's
My brain hurt like a warehouse
It had no room to spare
I had to cram so many things to store everything in there And all the fat, skinny people and all the tall, short people and all the nobody people and all the somebody people Never thought I'd need so many people A girl my age went off her head hit some tiny children
If the black hadn't pulled her off
I think she would have killed them
A soldier with a broken arm fixed his stare to the wheels of a Cadillac A cop knelt and kissed the feet of a priest
And the queer threw up at the sight of that I think I saw you in an ice cream parlor drinking milk shakes cold and long smiling and waving and looking so fine
Don't think you knew you were in this song
And it was cold and it rained so I felt like an actor And I thought of ma
and I wanted to get back there Your face your race
the way that you talk I kiss you you're beautiful
I want you to walk
We've got five years
stuck on my eyes
Five years
What a surprise

We've got five years
My brain hurts a lot
Five years
That's all we've got
We've got five years
What a surprise
Five years
stuck on my eyes
We've got five years
My brain hurts a lot
Five years
That's all we've got
We've got five years
stuck on my eyes
Five years
What a surprise
We've got five years
My brain hurts a lot
Five years,
That's all we've got
We've got five years
What a surprise
We've got five years
stuck on my eyes
We've got five years
My brain hurts a lot
Five years
That's all we've got
Five years
Five years
Five years
Five years
