Carpe Diem

August Burns Red

I've thrown away all of my outside distractions I'm diving headfirst to chase a dream that I won't let go It's worthless, a waste of time This goal is out of reach, you better fall back in lineThis is what I need, you are what I need I need motivation to prove you wrong 'Cause I will prove you wrongWhat makes you think that you are different? How can you chase these dreams? They've become a chore I know I'm close, I'm almost there Just a little more and I will prevail Through what you call ignorance I will prevailNow I've chased this dream to do what I love And I wouldn't trade it for a thing Now I've chased this dream and I made it out alive I wouldn't trade it for a thing I threw away what naysayers say And started on a race that I had to win for myself And you proved me wrong, you proved me wrong All I've learned is teaching me more All I know is driving me on All I've learned is teaching me more All I know is driving me on
