

Allan Rayman

Well, there you go again, acting like it's all about you
 And there you go again, acting like it's all about you
 Big shot, one take, oh you, yes you Say I'm not what you wanted
 No, what you wanna do
 And I love what we started, oh
 What I could put you through There you go, babe, talking, talking, talking, no clue
 And there you go again talking, talking, talking, no clue
 I'm onto something more than you Say I'm not what you wanted
 Oh, what you wanna do
 I love what we started
 No, what I could put you through
 I'm [?] you, I'm [?]
 We'll kill with them with kindness, baby, kill something good
 If I said that I want it, baby's [?]
 If I told her to [?], my baby's [?]
 My baby's the songs now, my baby, you're shook There you go again, talking, talking, talking, no clue
 And there you go again, talking, talking, talking, no clue
 I'm onto something more than you Kill me with silence, I'll kill her with words
 When her friends are repeating, the kills her the worst
 I tell her to [?] my baby's [?]
 My baby's the songs now, my baby, you're shook
 I'll put you out for real There you go again, talking, talking, talking, no clue
 And there you go again, talking, talking, talking, no clue
 I'm onto something more than you
 Say I'm not what you wanted, no
 What you wanna do?
 And I love what we started, oh
 And what I could put you through
 And what I could put you through And there you go again, talking, talking, talking, no clue
 And there you go again, talking, talking, talking, no clue
 I'm onto something more than you
