From Yesterday

Thirty Seconds to Mars

He's a stranger to some And a vision to none He can never get enough Get enough of the oneFor a fortune, he'd quit But it's hard to admit How it ends and begins On his face is a map of the world A map of the world On his face is a map of the world A map of the worldFrom yesterday, it's coming From yesterday, the fear From yesterday, it calls him But he doesn't want to read the message here On a mountain he sits, not of gold but of shit Through the blood he can look, see the lives that he took From the council of one He'll decide when he's done with the innocentOn his face is a map of the world A map of the world On his face is a map of the world A map of the worldFrom yesterday, it's coming From yesterday, the fear From yesterday, it calls him But he doesn't want to read the message He doesn't want to read the message He doesn't want to read the message hereOn his face is a map of the world From yesterday, it's coming From yesterday, the fear From yesterday, it calls him But he doesn't want to read the message hereFrom yesterday From yesterday From yesterday, the fearFrom yesterday From yesterday But he doesn't want to read the message He doesn't want to read the message He doesn't want to read the message here
