Congratulations on the mess you made of things
On trying to reconstruct the air and all that brings
And oxidation is the compromise you own
But this is beginning to feel like the dog wants her bones, sayLa, la, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, laYou force your fire and then you falsify your deeds
Your methods dot the disconnect from all your creeds
As fortune strives to fill the vacuum that it feeds
But this is beginning to feel like the dog's lost her lead, say
La, la, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la, la
La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, laThis is beginning to feel like the long winded blues of the never
This is beginning to feel like it's curling up slowly and finding a throat to choke
This is beginning to feel like the long winded blues of the never Barely controlled locomotive consuming the picture and blowing the crows, the smokeThis is beginning to feel like the long winded blues of the never
Static explosion devoted to crushing the broken and shoving their souls to ghost
Eternalised, objectified. You set your sights so high.
But this is beginning to feel like the bolt busted loose from the leverNevermind death professor
Your structure's fine
My dust is better
Your victim flies so high
All to catch a bird's eye view of who's next
Never you mind death professor
Love is life, my love is better
Your victim flies so high
Eyes could be the diamonds
Confused with who's nextNever you mind death professor
Your shocks are fine, my struts are better
Your fiction flies so high,
Y'all could use a doctor, who's sick, who's next?Never you mind death professor Electrified, my love is better
It's crystallized, so'm I
All could be the diamond fused with who's nextThis is beginning to feel like the dawn of the luz of forever
This is beginning to feel like the dawn of the luz of forever
This is beginning to feel like the dawn of the luz of forever
This is beginning to feel like the dawn of the luz of forever
