

Georgia

Vance Joy

She is something to behold
Elegant and bold
She is electricity
Running through my soul
Ohh...And I could easily lose my mind
The way you kiss me will work each time
Calling me to come back to bed
Singing "Georgia on My Mind"
And I...
And I...Lips, generous and warm
You build me up like steps
Eyes, innocent and wild Remind what it's like
Ohh...And I could easily lose my mind
The way you kiss me will work each time
Pulling me back into the flames
And I'm burning up again
I'm burning up and I
I never understood what was at stake I never thought your love was worth its weight
And now you've come and gone
I've finally worked it out, I worked it out
I never should have told ya
I never should have let you see inside
Don't want it troubling your mind
Won't you let it be?
I never should have told ya
I never should have let you see inside
Don't want it troubling your mind
Won't you let it be?
I never should have told ya
I never should have let you see inside
Don't want it troubling your mind
Won't you let it be? I never should have told ya
I never should have let you see inside
Don't want it troubling your mind
Won't you let it be? And I could easily lose my mind
The way you kiss me will work each time
Pulling me back into the flames
And I'm burning up again
I'm burning up and I...
I never understood what was at stake
I never thought your love was worth its weight
And now you've come and gone

I've finally worked it out, I worked it out

I...

Oh...

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://counterlikes.com/>