

Revolution Begins

Arch Enemy

Since the day that you were born
The wheels are in motion
Turning ever faster
Play your part In the big machine
The stage is set
The road is chosen
Your fate
Preordained We are watching you
...
Every step of the way
Yaw
...
Never too late
To stand your ground
Revolution
Begins In you
In me
Revolution
Once lost
Lost in the game Mental chains
Breaking now
Set yourself free
Who are they to tell you what to do?
This stage is not set The road is not chosen
Your fate not preordained
They are losing control
Every step of your way
Yaw
...
Never too late To stand your ground
Revolution
Begins
In you
In me
Revolution
(Solo)
...
(Solo)
...
Yaaw
...
Never too late

Too stand your ground

Revolution

Begins

In you

In me

This is revolution
