Drink 'Till We're Gone

Lucero

Life is short despite of your plans so tell the girls they're pretty while you can 'cause one day they're gone and all you got left some empty bottles and an old country song plays on and oni wasted my time with these cigarettes and these ashes are all i got left watch this old town nothing's left for me wash downstream and into the sea because this big old river will kill us in time 'till then we'll drink it's weight in cheap beer and wine we can drink just as fast as the river is strong and we'll drink 'till we're gone Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
